

DB Code of Conduct for Business Partners

Purpose of the DB Code of Conduct for Business Partners

In this DB Code of Conduct for Business Partners, Deutsche Bahn Group (DB Group) has defined its requirements and principles for its business dealings with its business partners, in particular those relating to compliance with ethical standards, applicable laws as well as integrity. Business partners are all non-DB Group companies that supply goods and services to the DB Group. These can, for example, be suppliers, consultants, agents, other providers of goods and services, and so on. DB Group expects its business partners to implement the principles set out in this DB Code of Conduct for Business Partners throughout their organizations worldwide and to comply with these.

01 General Principles

DB Group is dedicated to sustainability and has committed itself towards the United Nations to comply with the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact. Commercial success and socially responsible actions do not contradict each other - in fact, they are interdependent. We see sustainable and responsible conduct as an important foundation in relation to business dealings with our business partners.

We therefore expect our business partners

- to carry out their business activities with integrity, i.e. in particular to comply with the law that is applicable to them, e.g. human rights, including the core labour standards of the International Labour Organisation (ILO) and the law on anti-corruption, data privacy, competition, cartels and the environment, and
- to work to ensure that the principles set out in this Code of Conduct for Business Partners are also respected by their own business partners and promote this accordingly, and
- to act honestly, responsibly and fairly.
